

Narrative Biography Rubric: See Audio Conference for Specifics Writer's Name:: _____

Please review the sound clip and rubric below to see where you did well and what you can improve!

Details (Ideas and Content)	Show, Don't Tell (Word Choice)	Voice/Word Choice	Chronological and Location Organization	Sentence Fluency	Conventions
The narrative captures an unforgettable time. The details make the story come alive.	Did you announce details or describe them in a way we can imagine?	Interesting and unique writing that uses specific, not boring words.	The essay uses chronological order. It is well put together and is enjoyable to read.	The essay contains several different sentence structures and beginnings.	There are few if any mechanical, grammatical, and spelling errors.

Current Grade	Grading Procedure	What to do now:
A+	All 6 Areas Mastered	Extensions
B+	5 Areas Mastered	Improve your essay in the problem area, resubmit, and then work on extensions
C+	3-4 Areas Mastered	Improve your essay in the 2-3 problem areas, resubmit, and then work on extensions
D+	1-2 Areas Mastered	Improve your essay in the 4-5 problem areas, resubmit, and then work on extensions
F	No Areas Mastered	Rewrite the assignment and submit following all expectations; you cannot fail